Second Sunday of Advent - Yr C - 9th December, 2012

From your Pastor

Straighten your Path

President Mohammed Morsi fled the Presidential Palace in Cairo for his life. It is a very different mood to the time described as Arabic Spring in Egypt, when he was elected to be the president of Egypt after the fall of Hosni Mubarrack. In both cases it is the aspiration of freedom, especially religious freedom that people were seeking.

Similar uprising by people were common in Mediterranean area, especially in the history of Israel. There were many such conflicts, uprisings and invasion by powerful dictators mentioned in Bible. One of such devastating events was the Babylonian deportation of the Jews after the destruction of Jerusalem Temple. The Jews felt abandoned by God when Israel had been defeated, Jerusalem conquered, the temple ransacked and the people were sent to exile. In that situation Prophet Baruch, secretary of prophet Jeremiah, imagined their return to their promised land in triumph. They would return like royalty, their route will be prepared for their glorious return – the hills flattened, they valleys filled in, to speed them on their way. They would travel not guarded by enemy soldiers but accompanied by God's mercy and integrity. The faithfulness of God would gather them once again in the Promised Land. It was an expression of hope. This is our first reading at Mass today.

That is the background of the language used by John the Baptist in today's gospel. John takes up the image of preparing the way, as he speaks of preparing to receive the coming king – Jesus Christ. At this time salvation is not just for the people of Israel, but for all people. "All mankind shall see the salvation of God."

But to receive that salvation, to welcome the king, we are asked to prepare a way for him – to straighten out our lives, smooth the way for his coming. We do that through repentance, so that our sins may be forgiven. Sin is the most fundamental form of exile – our exile from God. When we choose sin, we opt for selfishness. When we choose to prepare a way for God, the joy will not only be immense, it will be everlasting. Therefore in the midst of all other preparation for Christmas, let us not forget to prepare a way for Christ to come into our lives.

The Story of Christmas Crib

By Fr. Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

In the last year of his life, Francis of Assisi told his friends, "This will be my final Christmas. I want to celebrate it in a new way." Francis had a friend in the lovely mountain town of Greccio. His friend owned some land on a hillside opposite the town. Several grotto-like caves lined the hilly property. His friend gave him and his brothers the land to use as a hermitage.

Francis and a few of his disciples moved there at the beginning of advent. Francis confided to his friend that he would like one cave to be transformed into a Bethlehem scene. His friend lined the cave with straw. He installed a manger filled with straw and brought in an ox and a donkey. On the side he placed a small altar for Mass.

Chapel of the Crib at Greccio

About an hour before midnight, the people of the village of Greccio came in procession to celebrate Christmas with Francis. Their stream of lanterns and candles looked like stars coming across the valley. As they sang the laude, the ancient Christmas carols of Umbria, they seemed to echo the Gloria of the angels in Luke's Gospel.

When they arrived at the cave, they were charmed by the sight of the ox and donkey and manger and none more delighted than their children. The Eucharistic celebration began. At homily time, Francis stood by the manger to talk about the birth of Jesus. A spell of religious awe overtook the listeners. One account says that at the end of the homily, a gold light filled their assembly. They saw Francis reach into the empty manger and lift out a baby and cradle him in his arms. And then he held the baby out to them, saying: "My brothers and sisters, behold the Savior of the world." And all of them were joined as one in the mystery of the Incarnation.

After the Eucharist, Francis disappeared. Not until dawn, when the morning star hovered in the sky, did someone find him. He was absorbed in prayer, his face turned toward Bethlehem.

And that is how our custom of having a Christmas crib began. Through the centuries, Christians have found a thousand ways to create their own version of the crib. By bringing to life the Christmas scene, millions of believers have been put in touch with this profound mystery of God's love for us.

What does Francis teach us by his Vision of the Crib?

See the simplicity of God's mystery. Our education makes us look at the complicated side of life. Our culture prizes the complexity of a scientific world. The result is we approach God as such a confusing reality that we fail to see the simplicity of his love. Francis brings us a birth room and a child on a hillside. He tells us that God has the simplicity of this child.

Observe how God comes amid the poor. Since God is the greatest there is, it seems to us he should be found in the palaces of the mighty. Francis builds his crib scene on a road near a poor village. God is always to be found among the poor, the needy, the suffering.

See how human God can be. What is more captivating than a few hundred families singing carols at midnight beneath a starry sky in the hills of Umbria? What is more soul satisfying than cradling a baby with love in the mountain air? What better way could God have chosen to show how much he thinks of us? What better method could Francis have picked to communicate how caring God is?

Christmas Gifts for the Priests

Exchanging gifts is very much part of the Christmas tradition. Therefore many parishioners may want to offer gifts to their priests to share their joy. To help such parishioners, there are Christmas Offering envelopes made available at the back of the Church. The gifts you offer is considered as for all priests of the Archdiocese to share. Therefore the money collected will go in to Pastoral Revenue Fund of the Archdiocese. Priests in poorer parishes draw their stipends and expenses from this fund. The money you offer through this envelope is NOT considered as Mass Offering.

COLUMBAN ART CALENDAR— Now available at SPC Berala Piety Stall for $9.00.
Buying a copy you will be supporting the Columban Mission.

Nativity Scene in St Peter Chanel Church

As we start the Advent, nativity scene is set up in the church. Thanks to John Rodoreda and team. You see the crib very bare. Jesus and Mary have not reached there yet. They are on their way to Bethlehem. Therefore the statues are on a mobile platform which will move up towards the crib each week until Christmas day when the statue of baby Jesus also appears in the Crib.

Banners on the walls represent the Litany of names of Jesus Christ. They are based on Old Testament Prophecies and taken from one of the ancient hymns still used from 17 December till Christmas, in the official prayer of the church.

Nativity Scene on the Roof

One of the novelties this year is the nativity scene above the portico of St Peter Chanel Church. It was the combined effort of the dedicated team work of Ante Susic, Zeljko Zivkovic, Anton Cvetko, Marija Kovac, Ivica Kovac. Thanks to them for a job well done.

Christmas Trees and Ornaments

The fir tree has a long association with Christianity, it began in Germany almost 1,000 years ago when St Boniface, who converted the German people to Christianity, was said to have come across a group of pagans worshipping an oak tree. In anger, St Boniface is said to have cut down the oak tree and to his amazement a young fir tree sprung up from the roots of the oak tree. St Boniface took this as a sign of the Christian faith. But it was not until the 16th century that fir trees were brought indoors at Christmas time.

We have an imitation Fir Tree set up in St Peter Chanel Church. It is decorated with empty gift boxes. The Tree is an invitation for all parishioners to make an offering of gifts for the poor. You may wrap up the gifts and write on them for what age people those gifts are meant for. Then place them under the Christmas Tree. Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will collect the gifts and distribute them to the less fortunate.

Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is traditionally a circular garland of evergreen branches representing eternity. On that wreath, five candles are typically arranged. During the season of Advent one candle on the wreath is lit each Sunday as a part of the Advent services. Each candle represents an aspect of the spiritual preparation for the coming of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

Advent Wreath Candles

Set on the branches of the wreath are four candles: three purple candles and one pink candle. In the centre of the wreath sits a white candle. As a whole, these candles represent the coming of the light of Christ into the world.

On the first Sunday of Advent, the first purple candle is lit. This candle is typically called the "Prophecy Candle" in remembrance of the prophets, primarily Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. This candle represents hope or expectation in anticipation of the coming Messiah.

Each week on Sunday, an additional candle is lit.

On the second Sunday of Advent, the second purple candle is lit. This candle typically represents love. Some traditions call this the "Bethlehem Candle," symbolizing Christ's manger.

On the third Sunday of Advent the pink, or rose-coloured candle is lit. This pink candle is customarily called the "Shepherds Candle" and it represents joy.

The fourth and last purple candle, oftentimes called the "Angels Candle," represents peace and is lit on the fourth Sunday of Advent.

On Christmas Eve, the white centre candle is traditionally lit. This candle is called the "Christ Candle" and represents the life of Christ that has come into the world. The colour white represents purity. Christ is the sinless, spotless, pure Saviour. Also, those who receive Christ as Savior are washed of their sins and made whiter than snow.

Feasts this week

13 December – St Lucy, virgin, martyr. Memorial

St Lucy was a young woman from a wealthy Sicilian family who lived during the early fourth century. It is believed that her mother arranged for her to be married, but Lucy refused as she wanted to devote her life to serving Christ. She offered prayers at the tomb of St Agatha and her mother's illness was miraculously cured. She was eventually martyred during the persecution of Emperor Diocletian, but even in the face of death she showed great courage and faith in God. The name Lucy means 'light' and St Lucy is called upon as the patron saint of the blind.

14 December - St John of the Cross, priest, doctor. Memorial

St John of the Cross was born into a poor Spanish family in 1542. After attending a Jesuit college, he joined the Carmelite Order, studied theology and was the ordained a priest at the age of 25. St Teresa of Avila encouraged him to join the Discalced Carmelite Reform, which provided two houses for friars. But after several years he was seized and imprisoned by the Calced Carmelite friars, who rejected the reform. St John of the Cross was a mystic and poet, and it was during his captivity that he wrote some of his finest work. He eventually escaped and founded a college at Baeza. St John's is regarded as a Doctor of Mystical Theology, and was officially declared a Doctor of the Church in 1926.

After the christening of his baby brother in church, Jason sobbed all the way home in the back seat of the car. His father asked him three times what was wrong. Finally, the boy replied, ‘That priest said he wanted us brought up in a Christian home, and I wanted to stay with you guys.’
