*From your PastorCommitment

These days our federal treasurer is in pain to explain how he is keeping the commitments he made during his election campaign. He promised to bring a surplus during his first term of the Government. Now he hopes that he will live long enough to see a surplus made in the budget. The opposition is questioning the treasurer on his integrity. Yes protecting one's integrity is important. If it is a matter of fundamentals of life, it is paramount important. Today's Gospel is about such a commitment in life.

Mary was betrothed to Joseph. But Joseph finds Mary pregnant before they cohabited. This naturally upsets Joseph. Joseph is a just man and marital commitment is important for him. Therefore he decided to divorce Mary thinking that she was unfaithful. But still he did not want to take any revenge on Mary or damage her reputation. Therefore Joseph wanted to divorce her in secret. But when he learns that Mary was not in any way unfaithful to him; on the contrary was very faithful to God, he accepts Mary into his life.

One of the major tendencies of our time is the unwillingness to take fundamental commitments in life. A lot of marriages are in ruin because of the lack of commitment shown by one or both parties. There is a tendency to substitute fundamental commitments in life with fascination for hobbies. Some may enjoy looking after pets, others may be into full time gardening, or some kind of sports. Sometimes job and status that would bring popularity become priority over fundamental commitments in life.

Joseph in most traditional pictures is painted as an old man, a father figure to the Holy Family rather than a groom to his young bride, Mary. It is in fact an attempt to depict Joseph as a wise man rather than to make a statement about his age. In his wisdom Joseph listened to God's promptings and followed the Holy Spirit. The way we can make the best of Christmas and make our celebrations meaningful is by reaffirming our commitment to the fundamentals of our Christian living. That is where you will meet Christ in our midst.

Feasts of the Week

25 December - The Nativity of the Lord. Solemnity.

History of Christmas:

People are often surprised to find that Christmas was not celebrated by the earliest Christians. The custom was to celebrate a saint's birth into eternal life—in other words, his death. Thus Good Friday (Christ's death) and Easter Sunday (His Resurrection) took center stage.

To this day, the Church celebrates only three birthdays: Christmas; the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary; and the Birth of John the Baptist. The common thread in the celebrations is that all three were born without sin: Christ, because He was the Son of God; Mary, because she was sanctified by God in the Immaculate Conception; and John the Baptist, because his leap in the womb of his mother, Elizabeth, at the Visitation is seen as a type of Baptism (and thus, even though John was conceived with Original Sin, he was cleansed of that sin before birth).

It took a while, though, for the Church to develop the feast of Christmas. While it may have been celebrated in Egypt as early as the third century, it did not spread throughout the Christian world until the middle of the fourth century. It was first celebrated along with Epiphany, on January 6; but slowly Christmas was separated out into its own feast, on December 25. Many of the early Church Fathers regarded this as the actual date of Christ's birth, though it does coincide with the Roman festival of Natalis Invicti (the winter solstice, which the Romans celebrated on December 25), and the Catholic Encyclopedia does not reject the possibility that the date was chosen as "a deliberate and legitimate 'baptism' of a pagan feast."

By the middle of the sixth century, Christians had begun to observe Advent, the season of preparation for Christmas, with fasting; and the Twelve Days of Christmas, from Christmas Day to Epiphany, had become established.

26 December - St Stephen, the first martyr. Feast.

Stephen's name means "crown," and he was the first disciple of Jesus to receive the martyr's crown. Stephen was a deacon in the early Christian Church. The apostles had found that they needed helpers to look after the care of the widows and the poor. So they ordained seven deacons, and Stephen is the most famous of these.

God worked many miracles through St. Stephen and he spoke with such wisdom and grace that many of his hearers became followers of Jesus. The enemies of the Church of Jesus were furious to see how successful Stephen's preaching was. At last, they laid a plot for him. They could not answer his wise argument, so they got men to lie about him, saying that he had spoken sinfully against God. St. Stephen faced that great assembly of enemies without fear. In fact, the Holy Bible says that his face looked like the face of an angel.

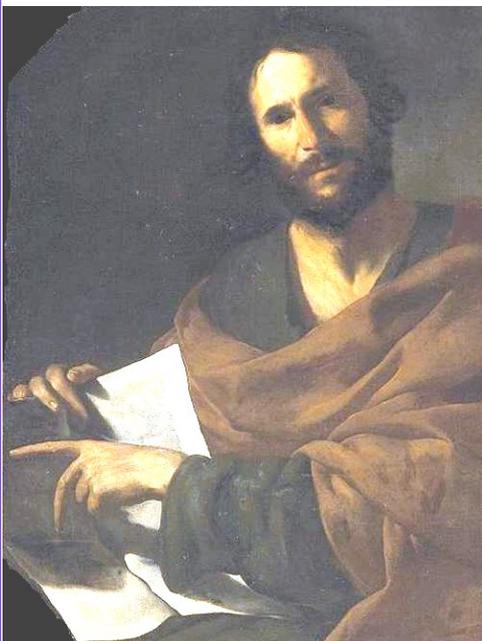

The saint spoke about Jesus, showing that He is the Savior, God had promised to send. He scolded his enemies for not having believed in Jesus. At that, they rose up in great anger and shouted at him. But Stephen looked up to Heaven and said that he saw the heavens opening and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

His hearers plugged their ears and refused to listen to another word. They dragged St. Stephen outside the city of Jerusalem and stoned him to death. The saint prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" Then he fell to his knees and begged God not to punish his enemies for killing him.

After such an expression of love, the holy martyr went to his heavenly reward.

27 December - St John, apostle, evangelist. Feast.

St. John, the son of Zebedee, and the brother of St. James the Great, was called to be an Apostle by our Lord in the first year of His public ministry. He became the "beloved disciple" and the only one of the Twelve who did not forsake the Savior in the hour of His Passion. He stood faithfully at the cross when the Savior made him the guardian of His Mother. His later life was passed chiefly in Jerusalem and at Ephesus. He founded many churches in Asia Minor. He wrote the fourth Gospel, and three Epistles, and the Book of Revelation is also attributed to him. Brought to Rome, tradition relates that he was by order of Emperor Domitian cast into a cauldron of boiling oil but came forth unhurt and was banished to the island of Pathmos for a year. He lived to an extreme old age, surviving all his fellow apostles, and died at Ephesus about the year 100.

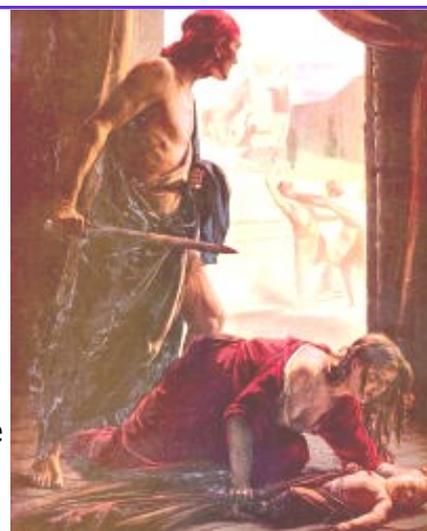

St. John is called the Apostle of Charity, a virtue he had learned from his Divine Master, and which he constantly inculcated by word and example. The "beloved disciple" died at Ephesus, where a stately church was erected over his tomb. It was afterwards converted into a Mohammedan mosque.

John is credited with the authorship of three epistles and one Gospel, although many scholars believe that the final editing of the Gospel was done by others shortly after his death. He is also supposed by many to be the author of the book of Revelation, also called the Apocalypse, although this identification is less certain.

28 December - The Holy Innocents, martyrs. Feast.

During this octave of Christmas the Church celebrates the memory of the small children of the neighborhood of Bethlehem put to death by Herod. Sacrificed by a wicked monarch, these innocent lives bear witness to Christ who was persecuted from the time of His birth by a world which would not receive Him. It is Christ Himself who is at stake in this mass-murder of the children; already the choice, for or against Him, is put clearly before men. But the persecutors are powerless, for Christ came to perform a work of salvation that nothing can prevent; when He fell into the hands of His enemies at the time chosen by God it was to redeem the world by His own Blood.

Our Christmas joy is tempered today by a feeling of sadness. But the Church looks principally to the glory of the children, of these innocent victims, whom she shows us in heaven following the Lamb wherever He goes.

Today, dearest brethren, we celebrate the birthday of those children who were slaughtered, as the Gospel tells us, by that exceedingly cruel king, Herod. Let the earth, therefore, rejoice and the Church exult — she, the fruitful mother of so many heavenly champions and of such glorious virtues. Never, in fact, would that impious tyrant have been able to benefit these children by the sweetest kindness as much as he has done by his hatred. For as today's feast reveals, in the measure with which malice in all its fury was poured out upon the holy children, did heaven's blessing stream down upon them.

"Blessed are you, Bethlehem in the land of Judah! You suffered the inhumanity of King Herod in the murder of your babes and thereby have become worthy to offer to the Lord a pure host of infants. In full right do we celebrate the heavenly birthday of these children whom the world caused to be born unto an eternally blessed life rather than that from their mothers' womb, for they attained the grace of everlasting life before the enjoyment of the present. The precious death of any martyr deserves high praise because of his heroic confession; the death of these children is precious in the sight of God because of the beatitude they gained so quickly. For already at the beginning of their lives they pass on. The end of the present life is for them the beginning of glory. These then, whom Herod's cruelty tore as sucklings from their mothers' bosom, are justly hailed as "infant martyr flowers"; they were the Church's first blossoms, matured by the frost of persecution during the cold winter of unbelief.

— St. Augustine

Christmas is a season that we dearly cherish, yet at times we can never fully grasp. It is good to have time to REFLECT each day on some aspects of this mystery to help us PREPARE for this important feast. The 9-Days novena Masses are actually a novena in honour of the Blessed Virgin who welcomed Jesus into the world and took the consequences of it. We who join the joyful celebration in the explosion of lights in the churches, could take a lesson from the mother of Jesus in her commitment to WELCOME JESUS into the world

Join us at St Joachim's Lidcombe 5:30AM for 9 days of DAWN masses starting 16 December till the 24, praying and singing Christmas hymns/songs, and sharing a hearty breakfast in the hall (or Dooley's Catholic Club).

He walked up to him, "Mr Murphy, do you want to go to heaven?"

No, I don't Father," he replied. The priest looked at him right in the eye, and said, "You mean to tell me that when you die you don't want to go to heaven?" Murphy smiled, "Oh, when I die, yes Father.
